Successful Store Policy.

Are you getting as much business as possible from each customer? Does each man buy all his goods from you or just a part of them? Does he come to your store to buy a pair of shoes and go elsewhere when he wants a pair of rubbers? There is a way of persuading almost every man in your vicinity that your store is the place for him to buy all of his goods. If you are located in a small town you may do it largely by gaining the personal friendship of a great many individuals, but if you are in business in a city of any size it is necessary to make people friends of your store policy. Upon store policy depends your success. Better think it over and devise a store policy and a store system that will come as near to pleasing every one as is possible. You will find by using Tee-Dee Want Ads. regularly that you have added a valuable department to your store policy. 'Phone 549 for the Tee-Dee Want Ad. man and let him talk it over

JUDGE WITT EXCUSES TWO GRAND JURORS

Colonel Purcell Contributing Member of Military-Mr. Leigh's Child Ill.

Judge Witt, of the Hustings Court, sat in chambers for a short while yesterday and heard excuses of good men who were anxious to avoid, if possible, service on the grand jury for the September term of the court, to begin to-morrw.

Only two of the jurors summoned to serve at this important term of the court where excused. Col. John B. Purcell got off because of the fact that he is a contributing member of the Virginia military, and Mr. Egbert G. Leigh because of the illness of his little child, and the absolute necessity of the father accompanying the child on a trip North for medical treatment. Messrs. C. E. Wingo and Seddon Bruce were named as jurors.

medical treatment. Messrs. C. E. Wingo and Seddon Bruce were inamed as jurors, to serve in the place of the two thus excused.

The grand jury will meet to-morrow morning, and it is expected that the body will give further consideration to the primary squabble.

Prominent people at Murphy's last night were Dr. J. F. Bryant, Southamn-ton; Rev. Dr. J. J. Lafferty, of Crozet; Hon, Pembroke Petiti, of Fluvanna, and Scnator W. P. Barksdale, of Hallfax.
